Michael has spent eternity serving his God, but after a routine mission to Earth goes horribly wrong, the archangel is forced to seek out the hidden truth about Heaven, Hell and the human race. Since before time, Michael has been the perfect example of what an angel should be. He is a brave warrior, a leader, a loyal servant and a trusted adviser to the almighty God. After a routine mission on Earth to stop the minions of Hell from obtaining a potential weapon of massive power goes horribly wrong, Michael is left with a plethora of unanswered questions. Seeking the answers to his questions, Michael begins to unravel the web of lies which is the story of Heaven and Hell. As he approaches the truth of matters, Michael's existence takes a drastic turn. God has seen fit to turn his back on Heaven's favorite servant. After an eternity of fighting in the name of his God, Michael is rewarded with exile. Thrust from Heaven, never again to see the beautiful realm which sits behind the Pearly Gates, the disgraced angel is forced to roam the Earth for all eternity, pinning for what he has lost, or so he thinks. Heaven may not be as far away as it seems. The key to his re-entry may be held by the last being in the universe he would ever wish to speak to: Lucifer. Can Michael trust the words which spill forth from the mouth of the Prince of Lies? Is there truth hidden somewhere behind those cunning eyes and knowing smile, or is Michael simply playing Lucifer's game?
