

The Forgotten Age: Book 1, Rise of The Druids (Volume 1)

Jason and Kelly don't know each other, yet they have both been having dreams and hearing whispering voices telling them to find the other. Disillusioned with their lives they both decide to act on the compulsion within the dreams to head North and leave the drudgery of their lives behind. When Jason saves Kelly in the hills above Manchester it sets off a chain of events that will pit them against a powerful enemy that the world only remembers in folklore as well as find them the unlikelyst of new friends and allies on an adventure that spans two worlds. With the bond between them growing deeper and the power within them growing stronger, with their world teetering on the brink of destruction, Jason and Kelly must answer the call of destiny and bring back the use of magic to the Human race before the latent magic in the land they live on tears apart the very vessel that contains it. To do that, Jason and Kelly must return the sect of the Warrior Magician, a sect that has been seen since before the pages of history had even begun to be written. To save the world they must resurrect the ancient first order of the Druid.
