

The Wolf & The Golden Diamond Sword: A Darby Doogan Adventure

In a growing young City of Batterson, Wisconsin where life is peaceful and calm eight young ladies have been brutally murdered. The question is, was it by a craze out of control highly intelligent psychopath or was it a vicious killing werewolf as some have come to fear? One hard nose retired police detective Darby Doogan who doesn't buy into fairy tales is forced to set aside his own emotions, police training and personal beliefs during his own investigation in order to hunt down a killer who comes from an invisible world of long ago. Darby and his team of unusual crime fighters have been given the task to discover a creature that has traveled from century to century unable to be killed. A creature who has influenced and manipulated his victims from kings to peasants over the centuries to do his bidding. A killer who can only be killed by a Golden Diamond Sword that has been lost for hundreds of years. Strangely enough the only person who has the authority to use the sword to kill the creature is the very person who does not hate the creature. It is the very person who dearly loves the creature and has no desire to ever harm him.
