

The Dakini (A View from a Height)

J E Murphys The Dakini is the first book of an amazing and sweeping epic story of one womens discovery of her uncommon abilities and her special purpose for being alive. The story takes us from Dawns troubled youth in Hawaii, to China, Nepal and Tibet, as she matures into perhaps the most incredibly powerful woman the world has ever known. The Dakini tells how Dawn is declared an enemy of the Chinese government and is thrown into prison, where she first becomes aware of unsuspected powers. She begins also to become aware of supernatural beings who are gathering on Earth to correct an old error, and to prevent the natural progression of that mistake, which could lead to terrible destruction and the death of millions. An imaginative and sensitive narrative about the unknown connections between this world and the next, The Dakini is told from the viewpoint of Dawn herself, immersed in the amazing events as they unfold around her.
