

The Man Who Stole God

Jesus and his disciples visit one of the many villages and while resting, he is surrounded by the children and mothers of the village, and they want a story from the master himself. He tells them an Old Testament story about a man who thought he had Gods blessing because he had silver idols and a personal priest. But his world comes apart when the idols and the priest disappear. Jesus concludes the story with a spiritual lesson when he tells the children what happened to the idols and the thieves.
