

The Velvet Sofa

The Velvet Sofa is a story of a young woman, Judy, whose first marriage was extremely degrading and explosively violent. The adoption of two special needs children only added fuel to an already raging fire. After battling her way out of alcoholism and that relationship, her second marriage added a withering blow to an already fragile state of mind. The humiliating experiences in these marriages along with the adoptions and alcoholism all but destroyed her very soul. Distortions of truth and subtle thoughts of suicide which had plagued her mind in earlier years re-emerged and seemed to be the only feasible answer. Her story is punctuated with disappointment and heart wrenching emotion. Only with the aid of a small army of good friends and competent professional help was Judy able to achieve a life of joy and peace, charged with more hope than she ever felt she deserved. You will read this compelling and brutally honest story and walk away cheering for her victory.
